

Job Search & Interview Coaching

Naviga's professional Job Search & Interview Coaching service provides a personalized road map that gives excellent insight on best practices to land your next position.

What to expect when purchasing this professional service?

1. A one on one conference call with a Naviga career expert to discuss your career history, job search strategies, interviewing style and overall career goals.
2. Direct coaching on employer prospecting, which includes learning two of the best practices to find and land your next position. We will explain in detail how to use the recommended approaches and give personalized examples of each.
3. A detailed action plan that outlines a clear road map on finding your next position.
4. A personalized target list of employers and key decision makers within that employer (with contact information) that will give framework in using the best practices.
5. Direct coaching on interviewing, which includes; the best strategies to use in order to achieve the interview, how to prepare before the interview, strategies to use during the interview and the most effective strategies to use after the interview.
6. A soft copy of the action plan and job search & interviewing resources.
7. A personalized one on one follow-up conference call to walk through the action plan and key information that we feel you must know in order to be successful.
